Dear Ms. Chavez:

Congratulations on your selection as one of 30 remarkable Pennsylvania women who have made significant contributions toward responding to and ending violence against women here in our commonwealth.

The Pennsylvania Coalition Against Domestic Violence (PCADV) is delighted to honor you at a 30th anniversary celebratory luncheon with our Board of Directors on Thursday, September 14, 2006, in State College. (Logistics and directions are noted on the reverse of this letter.)

This Tribute will recognize your efforts that not only helped change systems, shift attitudes and enlist allies, but also transform futures. Today, so many more battered women in Pennsylvania now know that when they are in crisis, they have places to shelter them, advocates to counsel them and a host of services to support them as they attempt to rebuild their lives free of fear and violence.

Because of time limitations, we regret that there will not be an opportunity for you to offer personal remarks at the luncheon. However, PCADV will be sending out press releases to local media announcing your inclusion in our Tribute and encouraging editors to follow up with an in-depth interview/story.

You will be hearing from your local domestic violence program or the individual who submitted your name to confirm your availability and attendance.

PCADV looks forward to meeting you and acknowledging your commitment to the pursuit of safety and justice for battered women.

With kindest regards,

Susan Kelly-Dreiss
