

Who is Randi?

Randi Lee Trimble was a vibrant young woman with an infectious smile. Her compassionate dark brown eyes, silky brown hair and delicate features enhanced her beautiful and vivacious personality. She valued her relationships with her friends, family and cherished the bond she had with her mother. Randi and her mother Nancy had a relationship of unconditional love. Randi was a woman filled with sincerity and humility. She was a woman who touched your heart and never let it go. She will always be alive in the hearts of those who loved her.

Randi's Race for Hope and Courage is a 5K Run/Walk in memory of Nancy Chavez's beloved daughter, Randi Lee Trimble, who was murdered in East Pennsboro Township on January 10, 2003, by a hit man hired by her husband. Both men are now serving life terms with no chance of parole.

Since her daughter's death, Nancy Chavez has been an advocate for victims of domestic violence. She established Randi's House of Angels (RHOA), a project of the Foundation for Enhancing Communities, fiscal sponsor, that supports children who experience and/or are victims of domestic violence.

Over the past fifteen years, Randi's Race has raised more than $473,000 to benefit Randi's House of Angels (RHOA). Over $275,000 has been donated to domestic violence and crime victim agencies that support programs for children. RHOA provides therapeutic programs, including Randi's Kidz Club, a ten-week therapeutic group for children ages 8-13; Randi's Camp, a three-day interactive summer camp; and Randi's Klubhouse, an interactive therapeutic group for children 5-7. To date more than 150 children have received services through RHOA.

Randi's Race is a community event that creates awareness and advocates against domestic violence. You can make a difference. Bring your family, friends and colleagues and enjoy the fun activities for all.
