

Who is Randi?

Randi Lee Trimble was a vibrant young woman with an infectious smile. Her compassionate dark brown eyes, silky brown hair and delicate features enhanced her beautiful and vivacious personality. She valued her relationships with her friends and family, and cherished the bond she had with her mother. Randi and her mother Nancy had a relationship of unconditional love. Randi was a woman filled with sincerity and humility. She was a woman who touched your heart and never let it go. She will always be alive in the hearts of those who loved her.

Randi's Race for Hope and Courage is a 5K Run/Walk in memory of Nancy Chavez's beloved daughter, Randi Lee Trimble, who was murdered in East Pennsboro Township on January 10, 2003, by a hit man hired by her husband. Both men are now serving life terms with no chance of parole.

Since her daughter's death, Nancy Chavez has been an advocate for victims of domestic violence. She established Randi's House of Angels (RHOA), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that supports children who experience and/are victims of domestic violence.

Over the past 21 years, Randi's Race has raised more than $726,000 to benefit Randi's House of Angels (RHOA). Funds support programs for children that are victims of domestic violence and experience at risk behavior. Programs offered through RHOA include trauma-informed therapy (both individual and group therapy). Over $275,000 has been donated to domestic violence and crime victim agencies that support programs for children. RHOA provides therapeutic programs including Randi's Kidz Club, a ten-week therapeutic group for children; Randi's Camp, a three-day interactive summer camp; Randi's Klubhouse, an interactive therapeutic group for children; and Randi's Teen Club, a safe setting for teens. Since its inception more than 380 children have received services through RHOA.

Randi's Race is a community event that creates awareness and advocates against domestic violence. You can make a difference. Bring your family, friends and colleagues and enjoy the fun activities for all.
