Dear Parents and Guardians,

Thank you for your interest in having your child/children participate in Randi's Camp for Hope and Courage. The camp is scheduled for three days, July 10, 11, 12 from 8:00 to 4:00 p.m. at the Silver Spring Presbyterian Church, 444 Silver Spring Road, and Mechanicsburg. (The location is not publicly shared due to confidentiality of clients)

Randi's Camp for Hope and Courage is a 3-day therapeutic/recreational camp for children ages 8-13 who are victims of domestic violence or at risk. This year's camp will focus on the theme of "Puzzle Palooza: Piecing Together Our Strengths" that will motivate the children to participate. Each day the campers will participate in structured therapeutic activities that allow them to explore their personal strengths and to develop ways to best use those strengths to enhance self-esteem. Additionally, they will have the opportunity to make new friends and have fun during the recreational portion of the camp day. There is no cost for the camp.

The therapeutic portion of the camp will be facilitated by Ann Gerras and Allie Burner. Both women have an extreme amount of experience in Social Work and Therapeutic Counseling with a combined experience working with children and families who experience trauma.

Enclosed is the application form for Randi's Camp for Hope and Courage. Please complete all portions of the application for each individual child and return to the address above no later than Tuesday, June 7, 2024. You will receive confirmation of your child's admittance to camp by Friday, June 14.

To be considered for admittance, you must be able to commit to the following:

- Attendance of at least one parent/guardian at the camp orientation on Tuesday, June 18 from 6:00 - 7:15 pm held at the Silver Springs Presbyterian Church; and
